

WE HONOR AND PAY TRIBUTE TO OUR COWBOY FRIEND DICKIE JONES

Dick Jones, 87, one of the true Western greats, star of "Range Rider", "Buffalo Bill, Jr." and numerous Gene Autry Westerns, died at his Northridge, CA, home July 7. He is also fondly remembered as the voice of Disney's "Pinocchio".

Dickie was very kind to our club, appearing at one of our meetings in the McKimmon Center and helping out with the "Milo Holt Day" in Siler City. He was a Cowboy's Cowboy – gone, but not forgotten.

A very young recording artist, Gene Autry, starred in his first feature "Tumbling Tumbleweeds" – becoming the first all-singing cowboy.

July's Western Film Fair in Winston-Salem experienced an overall leap in attendance this year....helped enormously by the attendance of our club members (The Raleigh Posse).

A blast from the past: at our 1990 Film Festival, three of our lady stars – Virginia Vale, Beth Marion, and Virginia Mayo,

Cowboy Talk

Welcome back to another rip roaring year of shoot-em-ups, wild chases, barroom brawls, and fun!

Going into 2015, this will be our 34th year of keeping the B-Westerns alive. During that time, we've watched over 600 movies – and we've just started!

For almost 30 of those years, the "Rocky River Cowboys" have entertained us with Gene Autry songs at our September meeting. This year, unfortunately, health issues for some to the guys will prevent them from being with us. Wil Scotten will be having a procedure on September 18 while Dave Carmichael is laid-up in re-hab for a while.

We send our condolences out to the family of long-time member Wiley Dickerson who passed away last month.

We might have a bit of a delay with our membership badges due to the passing of our good friend Joe Ross. It took me a while to connect with the company from which Joe had been getting the badges. If we don't have them in September, they'll be here in October (but, don't let this discourage you from paying your dues in September !!) Our "Cowboy of the Year" is George O'Brien.
